

I am very concerned about the cross-ownership of the media. I have see my local tv stations and almost all of the radio stations change from local ownership to corportate ownership based elsewhere. This does not seem like a very good use of the airwaves. I hope you would return to the prior ownership rules that limit the number of stations owned in any one market. Enough is enough.